

Business Registration Certificate Requirement

Unless you have previously submitted this form, failure to complete the Declaration on the reverse and return this form to the Office of Contract Administration (OCA) with your bid will be a basis for rejection of the bid, and OCA will assume that your company does not intend to apply for a Business Registration Certificate.

General

To receive an award, a vendor must have a current Business Registration Certificate or else not be required to register. The registration fee is $25, $150, $250 or $500, depending on the type and size of your business. The fee (except the $25 fee) is pro-rated for new registrations, depending on when during the year you started your business in San Francisco, and is based on estimated tax liability for your payroll expense. To determine the registration fee due, you can check the website at <http://sfgov.org/tax/>. In addition, every business "conducting business in San Francisco" must file a combined Payroll Expense Tax Statement and Business Registration renewal on an annual basis. Businesses with a computed tax of $2,500 or less are exempt from paying payroll expense tax if the statement is filed on time.

Who must obtain a registration certificate?

Any business located, or conducting business, in San Francisco.

What is "conducting business in San Francisco"?

Briefly, it means engaging in business in San Francisco, having met one or more of questions 1-7 on the reverse specifically relate to "conducting business."

Are there exceptions?

Yes. A person receiving rental income solely from a cooperative housing corporation, or a residential structure of less than 4 units, or a residential condominium, shall not be deemed to be engaging in business.

My business is not located in San Francisco. Is a registration certificate still required?

Yes, if the business "conducts business in San Francisco"
All businesses, including those which do not "do business in San Francisco" but excluding government agencies, must sign and return the Declaration.

What's involved in obtaining a registration certificate?

Obtaining a certificate is easy, but not automatic. Once the Tax Collector receives an application, the office must check the payment status of other taxes (Unsecured Personal Property Tax, Payroll/ Business Tax) and licenses or permits. If any tax or license/permit fee is delinquent, the certificate cannot be issued. Only when all taxes and fees are paid in full will the certificate be issued.

Where do I obtain the certificate?

At the Tax Collector's Office. You would obtain an application form from, and submit it and the registration fee to:

Tax Collector's Office, Taxpayer Assistance
City Hall, Room 140
San Francisco, CA 94102-4696

Do Company Divisions, Parents and Subsidiaries have to register separately?

That depends on a company's individual situation. Contact the Tax Collector at (415) 554-6718 or 554-4400 for more information.

Can I do business with the City without a certificate?

Not if you "conduct business in San Francisco." The City can make purchases from businesses only in the following situations:

- The business conducts business in San Francisco and has registered.
- The business does not conduct business in San Francisco and has signed the Declaration.
- The business is non-profit and tax-exempt, has signed the Declaration and has submitted an IRS exemption letter.
- The business is a government agency, bank, insurance company, or other listed exemption.
- There is an emergency. Although OCA can award the contract, the vendor may be subject to business taxes and required to possess a certificate.

These requirements cover service contracts, construction contracts and product purchases.

What if my application is pending during a bid evaluation?

If you are the low Bidder on a City contract, and have applied for the certificate but your application has not yet been approved, the City may make the award to you if you sign the Declaration. If you have a receipt from the Tax Collector for the registration fee, submit a copy of the receipt with this form.

What if I currently "do not conduct business in San Francisco," but if I win this bid, I will register?

You may answer the questions based on your current status, and you should not register at this time. If you win the bid, you should register with the Tax Collector.
